

Housing Pomona Leadership Program

Facilitated by:

Are you interested in helping to fulfill Pomona's vision of strengthening a culturally and economically diverse community where everyone can thrive?

Apply today to participate in the Housing Pomona Leadership Program, a six-session webinar series for community leaders interested in the future of housing in Pomona. You'll have a unique opportunity to connect with other community members and learn about policies that can help Pomona achieve its housing and community development goals. You will also have opportunities to share your ideas about housing needs within the community.

Approximately 30 people from across the community will be selected to participate.

Program Dates:

Every Tuesday from March 16-April 20, 2021, 5:30-7:00 p.m.

Session Topics:

- Overview of Pomona's Housing Needs and Ways to Increase Housing Affordability
- The Role of Zoning and Land Use in Developing Housing
- Reducing Housing Development Costs and Timeframes
- Equitably Increasing the Housing Supply
- Maximizing Financing and Funding Opportunities
- Conversation on Community Priorities

Application Due Date and Details:

Go to <http://bit.ly/housingpomona> for more details and to complete your

Questions:

Please contact Jessica Ripper at jessica@lesardevelopment.com or Planning Division at planningcounter@ci.pomona.ca.us

City of Pomona, Planning Division

bit.ly/pomonaplanning